

Austin's bigtime ¡Pachanga! Latino Music Festival features a ton of talent including some San Antonio groups.

The musical fun takes place at Fiesta Gardens on Saturday on four stages at Austin's third annual Latin music, art and food festival, SA groups include Girl in a Coma, Hacienda and Piñata Protest.

Also performing are Bomba Estereo, Bombasta, Roberto Pulido y Los Clasicos, Tortilla Factory, Pacha Massive, David Garza, Vallejo and others.

Girl in a Coma has a new CD out - "Adventures in Coverland." Meanwhile, Piñata Protest just released "Plethora" and Hacienda also has "Big Red & Barbacoa."

Austin's Pachanga! Fest: music, dance, fun

Friday, 21 May 2010 18:57

Festival details: Tix are $20; $50 VIP; 11 and younger, free. Gates open at noon Saturday. Festival takes place at Fiesta Gardens, 2101 Jesse E. Segovia St.